HERE'S "UNKNOWN" ARMY OFFICER WHOSE MARRIAGE TO HEIRESS SHOCKED SOCIETY

Capt. William Barrett, U. S. aviator, and bride, formerly Miss Alice Gordon Drexel.

Newport and New York society is gradually recovering from the latest shock it has suffered. This was the marriage of Miss Alice Gordon Drexel to Capt. William Barrett of the U. S. air force. Mrs. Barrett is one of America's greatest heiresses. She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Drexel of New York and granddaughter of the late Anthony Drexel of Philadelphia, who left a fortune of $30,000,000. She ran away without saying a word to her parents or friends and married Barrett. He had just returned from ten months' service overseas.

Germany's action is due to the alleged fact that Poles intend to distribute some of General Haller's men along the German frontier.

THE WEATHER

Washington, June 14. — (Associated Press) — Weather predictions for the week, beginning Monday, are:

Ohio Valley — Occasional local thundershowers are probable, although fair weather will prevail second half of week. Temperature average above normal.

Industrial commission bill and the act providing for establishment of the Bank of North Dakota, both of which are vital to the entire program. The industrial commission bill provides for a commission which would control the state owned industries to be established. The Bank of North Dakota would provide funds for carrying out the program. League supporters say failure of either measure would disrupt the program.

The other bills to be voted upon deal with education, taxation, state printing, emigration and judicial re-districting.

SMALL NATIONS ASK VOICE

Allied Leaders Think Germany Will Sign Terms—Further Modifications Made.

Poles Looking With More Favor on Proposed Plebiscite.

(By Associated Press.)

Germany's peace delegates, it is reported from Paris, will be given only two days in which to consider and reply to the revised peace terms, which it is expected will be presented on Monday.

Three days of grace would follow before the armistice was suspended, should the Germans refuse to sign.

In that event, hostilities between Germany and the allied and associated powers might be resumed next Saturday, June 21.

In recent reports, it had been stated that the treaty would be accompanied by a note giving the Germans five days in which to reply.

Advices indicate a change in the plans of the conference during the last day or two. The Germans themselves are said to have declared that they did not need more than five days in which to make up their minds, and they would virtually have this period, counting the three days' notice, which must be given under the terms of the armistice, before hostilities could be resumed.

It is possible, however, that there may be some delay in presenting the treaty. Smaller nations are reported to be demanding the treaty be considered in a plenary session before being sent to the Germans. If this were held, a postponement of the delivery probably would be forced.

The heads of the great powers are declared to be convinced that the Germans will accept the revised terms. Paris advises reporting that an air of optimism is evident on this point. A further modification of the treaty is announced in today's dispatches. The labor covenant has been altered in some respects, but the alterations have not been made public.

The Poles are said to be considering in a more favorable light the proposed plebiscite in Silesia, which will determine the future sovereignty of that region. They have, it is said, been given informal assurances that American troops will, if possible, be assigned to the plebiscite district to see that the voting is done fairly and that the voters are not intimidated.

TELEGRAMS ARE PILING UP AT RELAY POINTS

Railroad Telegraphers Said to be Refusing Commercial Business.

Western Union Officials Insist Situation not Serious.

(By Associated Press.)

Chicago, June 14.—Leaders of the nation-wide strike of commercial telegraphers declared today that reports show that heavy files of Western Union telegrams were piling up at relay points because of refusal of railroad telegraphers to handle the business.

Railroad operators were instructed by the Order of Railroad Telegraphers to discontinue handling commercial business after 6:00 a. m. today as a means of aiding commercial telegraphers in their strike.

After officials of the Western Union had declared the railroad operators were not following the order and that business was normal, S. J. Konenkamp, of the union, said not a commercial message had moved on some railways, that definite reports showed hundreds of towns are without telegraph service and that all districts would be likewise affected by night.

The machine has a wing spread of only 67 feet and is equipped with two 350 horse power motors said to be capable of developing a speed of more than 100 miles an hour. The machine carries 805 gallons of gasoline.

Alcock, the pilot, was among the British pioneers in aviation and during the war was on the Turkish front where he held the record for long distance bombing raids. He was captured by the Turks and held prisoner until the armistice was signed.

Lieutenant Brown also is a veteran of the war although since late in 1915 and up to the time of the armistice he was a prisoner in Germany.

Washington, June 14.—Anti-Prohibition delegates from many cities composed largely of union men opposing the prohibition of beers and light wines, descended on Washington for a great demonstration at the capital, planned by the central bureau of the District of Columbia.

Many special trains arrived during the day and those in charge of arrangements predicted that their first estimate of 100,000 had been far exceeded.

Promptly at two o'clock the various delegations with Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, heading the body of federal labor delegates from Atlantic City, marched up to the capitol and assembled in front of the historic east steps where inauguration ceremonies were held.

Previously Mr. Gompers appeared before a sub-committee of the Senate Judiciary Committee having in charge the bill for repeal of prohibition against beer and wine.

The demonstration began with the playing of the Star Spangled Banner followed by a number of speakers.

HELLO! THE NEW RATES ARE NOW IN FULL EFFECT

Telephone Rates Go Soaring As Burleson's Order Goes Into Effect.

Rules Governing New Toll Rates Make Calls Run In to Money Rapidly.

After being tied up by legal action since the 21st of last January, Burleson's new telephone toll rates went into effect Friday midnight, with the result that all telephone toll calls are now being made under the new rates and methods, which it is believed, greatly increase the tolls. The estimated increase runs 20 to 25 per cent, and may even go higher.

There are three chief rates, with the so-called "station to station" recognized as the basic rate.

The "station to station" rate it is explained, means a rate between the party making the long distance call and a designated point in another city so long as no specified individual is called for.

If the party making the call asks for a certain person at some other station, then the call is a "person to person" call and the rate is higher.

The messenger or appointment call, which applies where the party called for has no telephone or must be called to the phone by messenger is still higher.

For instance the station to station call from this city to Columbus is 30 cents and the person to person call is 40 cents. The messenger or appointment rates is 45 cents. Of course in every instance the war tax of 5c or 10c is added to all calls in addition to the figures above given.

Under the new system the telephone day is divided into three periods, with different rates. The day period begins at 4:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m.; the evening period is 8:30 p. m. to midnight, and the night period is from midnight to 4:30 a. m. The charge for the evening period is considerably less than that for the day period, and the charge for the night period is correspondingly lower than the evening period, so that persons talking during either period can do so probably cheaper than under the old rate. The longer the distance, the greater is the decrease in the rate as compared with the old rate, it is explained.

Then comes the "report charge." This, it is explained, does not apply to station to station calls, but person to person, and messenger or appointment calls are subject to its provisions, and where the company fails to find the party at the address given, or finds the party and he declines to talk; or finds the party and the one making the call is not at the place from which he made the call, or in numerous other instances, a "report charge" of 10c and upward, virtually one fourth of what the message charge would have been, is made if the company is unable to serve the person making the call, then no report is made.

And when a call is once placed and efforts have been made to reach the party, if the call is cancelled, a "report charge" is made. A call once placed is considered in effect until midnight of the same day placed unless formally cancelled or the party obtained. Evening and night rates apply only to station to station calls.

SUMMARY CORN AND WHEAT REGION

During the last 24 hours showers have occurred in Oklahoma, Missouri, eastern Kansas and from eastern Nebraska northeastward across the upper Mississippi Valley to the western Lake region. The rainfall was moderate to heavy in much of the area, exceeding an inch at 3 stations in Oklahoma, two in Iowa and one station in Kansas. Also, light to moderate showers occurred in limited areas in Montana, Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio. The temperature continues above normal except in Oklahoma and southern Kansas.

Summary of weather and crop conditions in the corn and wheat region for the week ending June 10, 1919.

High temperature and light rainfall were favorable for farm work and the growth of crops in eastern states, but the temperature was most too low in trans Mississippi Valley region for warm weather crops while some frost damage occurred in the central Rocky Mountain and far-northwest sections. Farm work has been advanced well in the south and the east but somewhat delayed by frequent rains in the great Plains States and northward. Dry weather and sunshine would be beneficial in many central and northern states but heavy rains are needed in the Northwest. The progress of the winter wheat crop continued very good to excellent and its general condition is satisfactory, except in the Northwest where it was too dry. The progress and condition of the spring wheat continued generally very good, except in western portion of the belt where too dry. The progress of the corn crop was generally very good east of the Mississippi River but it was too cool in the great Plains States and frequent heavy rains interrupted farm work. The corn fields are grassy in many southern districts but good progress was made with cultivation. The weather continued favorable for oats, rye, barley and pastures in most districts east of the Rockies.

Weekly weather and corn report for the Ohio section for the week ending June 10, 1919.

Under the favorable weather conditions that prevailed throughout the week, vegetation generally made rapid growth. Winter wheat continued to develop satisfactorily and is now in excellent condition; it is heading nicely; there was considerable lodging on account of rank growth and, in some localities, high winds. The planting of corn was practically completed except in some of the most northern counties where there is yet considerable planting to be done; the early planted is now being cultivated; the late planting is germinating and coming up nicely. Oats, barley, rye, meadows and pastures are in very good to excellent condition. The cutting of alfalfa was commenced. Much gardening was done with very satisfactory results. The outlook for fruit continues poor.

Daylight Saving

The controversy over the daylight saving law, the arbitrary fixing of time by legislative enactment, has broken forth again this year with more violence than ever before since the plan was first seriously urged.

The farmers of the nation, judging from reports from rural sections, seem to be almost unanimous in their opposition to the law.

The sentiment among the workers in the city districts is not so clearly defined. Law makers and people generally throughout the country have proceeded on the presumption that the city workers favored the time changing law which gave them more hours of daylight during the evenings.

There seems to be, however, some room to question whether the same unanimity exists among the city dwellers as that which prevails among the folks on the farms.

Unless the residents of the city are unanimously in favor of the law's retention, the end of long hours of daylight is not far distant.

It is difficult to see anything the law requires more serious than the changing of habits which really amount to nothing when we have the aid of the clock's face to encourage us.

Criticism Both Times

Secretary of the Navy Daniels has executed a complete turning movement, an about face on his pretentious ship-building program, submitted to Congress some weeks ago, which he asserted was the best plan to comply with the vital necessity to have a navy second to that of no nation on earth.

Secretary Daniels was severely criticized for submitting and insisting upon the adoption of so pretentious and costly a program of ship building especially in view of the fact that the league of nations pact was then in process of formation. Now with the league of nations pact completed and accepted by the peace conference delegates, Secretary Daniels advises the abandonment of his elaborate program and advises, in lieu of that a very substantial slowing up in fighting ship construction. Again he arouses a storm of criticism.

At first it seems that the generous criticism, not unmixed with censure, which the secretary of the navy has received, and is receiving, indicates a disposition, on the part of the people, to find fault with officials regardless of what they do or say.

That conclusion is not warranted. These are extraordinary times and people are anxious. Conditions in Europe, regardless of the adoption by the peace council of the league of nations pact, are not such as to create the most serene confidence. Europe is still in a very disturbed condition.

We are likely to think there is no need for a large navy when we read the splendid idealistic doctrines embodied in the league of nations pact, guaranteeing the peace of the world and, while in that happy, dreaming mood, lulled to ease by the sentiment of the document, we are very likely to speak sharply of any individual who shatters our dreams with the suggestion of a larger navy.

Then there comes the time (and this is such a time) when we read about Bolshevik uprisings all over Europe, about the sullen Hun attitude and we are ready to denounce the individual who whispers soft words of guaranteed world peace and order, for all time, into our ear.

Secretary Daniels may not have chosen "the psychological moment" for his announcements and it is possible, barely possible, of course, that the announcements are intended to boost the league of nations agreement.

Uptown Streets

The overwhelming majority of the residents of this city would feel much more comfortable if there was some definite action taken toward bringing about the permanent improvement of the streets in the business section.

Smooth and quiet asphalt streets in the business sections, the shopping centers—those streets, over which every traveler must pass, and from the condition of which he gains a lasting impression of our city and the people who live here—are an asset to the city the value of which is almost impossible to overestimate. Bad streets at the vital centers of business and travel (and ours are wretched) are certain to bring loss, both financial and in that good opinion we so much desire that strangers should have of us.

Really the condition of our business section streets is a serious matter to public and to merchants and the remedy is not unobtainable by any means. All that's needed is just a little energy and resourcefulness and the trick can be turned.

POETRY FOR TODAY

THE CAT BIRD.

Let others sing the robin,
And thrush whose magic flute
Among the bowery branches
Holds every listener mute.
I praise the scrappy catbird
Whose neat and sober coat
Belies the rowdy noises
That issue from his throat.

But while the sweeter minstrels
Are feasting with delight
On strawberries and cherries,
As is their ancient right,
The catbird every morning
Is busy on his round
Of orchards where his harvest
Of bugs and grubs is found.

No tiny insect snugly
In leaf or cocoon rolled,
No worm that plans a campaign
On fruits of mellow gold,
No microscopic larva
Escapes his beady eye;
All honor to the catbird
Despite his raucous cry.

A party of American women experts on canning left recently for France to instruct domestic science teachers. They were sent at the request of the French Minister of Agriculture through the French High Commission to Secretary of Agriculture Houston.

The American Commission for Devastated France made the offer to the French government to finance the project of sending a party of canning experts to France, the French government to arrange itineraries and all details of that kind and the United States Department of Agriculture to lend the workers.

The party left Washington with a full canning equipment. There were taken, also, some canning exhibits, a number of reels of motion pictures of canning work in the South, and everything necessary for a complete course of instruction in canning vegetables, fruits and meats in the home. A number of American manufacturers made contributions of tin cans and glass jars and various other kinds of equipment. The Department of Agriculture has prepared the material for a bulletin on canning to be issued by the French government.

These four American experts are not undertaking to teach canning directly to the housewives of France. When they arrive the Ministry of Agriculture will have assembled probably in Paris, the domestic science teachers from the agricultural schools of the various departments of France. The four experts from the United States Department of Agriculture will constitute the faculty of a school of home canning, the student body being the domestic science teachers of the French agricultural schools.—New York Tribune.

The ladies of the Elmwood Aid Society greatly enjoyed the hospitality extended to them by Mrs. Chas. Coffey at the Coffey home on Leesburg avenue. After the business of the meeting a piano solo by Anna Lois Mark and a reading by Mrs. Willard Wilson was much appreciated. A delicious summer collation was served. Mrs. Herbert Campbell and Mrs. Julia Benjamin assisting in the hospitalities.

Jane Ann Van Winkle celebrated her fourth birthday with a party from two to four o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The little folk who enjoyed the affair were Majorie Penn, Janet Daugherty, Lillian Schadel, Mary Ann Story, Mary Theresa and Nell Morris, Sara Jobe, Jane Young, of Asheville, N. C., Eleanor Shaff, Barbara, and Augusta Duff of Shelbyville, Ill., Clifford Glascock, Robert Bruce Franklin, Robert Krepps.

Mrs. Willis Lansing gave a pretty party Thursday afternoon for her daughter, Dorothy, and son Robert.

Twenty five children enjoyed an afternoon of merry play and the tempting luncheon served.

"Muscle dances are taboo with the International Association of Dancing Masters, which is meeting at Atlantic City.

Hence the "shimmy" dance must go.

It may all be well for Orientals to contort and shake themselves and call it art, but the "shimmy," which the convention decided came under the head of muscle dance, was declared to be tainted with suggestiveness.

The 150 dancing masters present agreed that it was vulgar and not acceptable in polite circles.

The "jazz" dance, however, met the approval of the convention, which commended it as artistic. The dance is performed by foot movement in which the heels scarcely touch the ground. The teachers characterized it as being full of beauty and grace of movement." — Chillicothe News-Advertiser.

HAWAII MAKES RAPID STRIDES

(By Associated Press)

Honolulu, T. H., May 15. — (By Mail)—Letters received here by public officials indicate that in many sections of the United States there exists a surprising ignorance as to the real status of Hawaii.

As a territory, Hawaii is an integral part of the United States and its political status is exactly the same as that of Alaska and of Oklahoma before the latter was granted statehood. Governor C. J. McCarthy frequently receives letters addressed to "The American Consul, Honolulu."

One large mainland paper recently speculated as to the possibility of Hawaii seeking "self determination," apparently not knowing that Hawaii is intensely American, despite its cosmopolitan population, and that its people are extremely proud of the fact that the territory has "gone over the top" in every Liberty Loan campaign and war charity drive.

A pupil in a public school in a Nebraska town, evidently at the instigation of his teacher, recently wrote a letter for delivery to "some scholar of Hawaii," describing the game of baseball, his home, and relating the fact that he had his meat cooked by

FUNERAL SERVICES MRS. E. C. BROWNING

The funeral services of Mrs. Elizabeth C. Browning were impressively conducted by Rev. C. R. Ferguson at the First Baptist Church Friday afternoon.

There was a very large gathering of relatives and friends, many coming from Bloomington, Good Hope and remote parts of the county.

Two hymns which had been favorites of Mrs. Browning, "Jesus Savior Pilot Me" and "Nearer My God to Thee" were beautifully sung by Mrs. Walter McLean and Mrs. Wm. Kerns, with Miss Powell accompanist.

The minister addressed most of his remarks to the living, referring briefly to the noble Christian life now ended and the inspiration it had been to him to come in contact with her faith and fortitude as the shadow of the death angel drew closer.

The floral remembrances were very lovely, including special designs from the family, Forest Chapter, O. E. S. of Bloomington, U. R. K. P. of Bloomington, the Baptist Missionary Society and Mrs. Browning's Sunday School Class, Neighbors and friends.

There was a long procession of autos to Bloomington for the burial in the family lot. Six nephews acted as pallbearers, Messrs. Harry Nickerson, James Collett, Robert Collett, Weldon McCoy, New Burlington; W. R. Corey, Columbus and Glenn McCoy of Good Hope.

Relatives who came from a distance for the services were: Mr. and Mrs. Horace W. Collett and daughter, Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Inwood daughters, Lila and Emily, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nickerson, son Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Inwood, son and daughter, Mr. Robert Collett, Mr. Weldon McKay of New Burlington; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cory of Columbus Mr. and Mrs. James Collett, Mr. and Mrs. James Haydock, Miss Hannah Collett, Mrs. James Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Skimming, Mrs. Everett Terrell of Wilmington; Mrs. Elizabeth Fernau, of Lyndon, Mrs. Sarah McCoy and daughter, of Greenfield; Mrs. J. B. Cory, of Frankfort; Mrs. Kelley, of Jamestown.

WIFE BEATING AMONG HUNS

London, May 16.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Henry de Halsalle, author of a work on Germany, told an audience at Holburn the other day that "wife beating is quite common among the German middle and upper classes and that the law of Prussia sanctions it."

"I once stayed a few days in the house of a Berlin merchant," said the speaker, "and one evening heard issuing from a room upstairs a woman's cries and the sound of blows. Presently my host appeared and I asked him the cause of the commotion."

"I have just been giving my wife her Saturday thrashing," he said. He added that he administered the punishment regularly every week end whether she deserved it or not.

"You must never let your wife forget that you are her lord and master," declared the German, rubbing his hands with evident satisfaction.

The co-eds do not use profane words, so there!—and they are willing to swear to it.

HOW THE RAINBOW DIVISION GOT NAME
 At a recent luncheon Lieutenant Colonel George Florence related how the famous "Rainbow" Division obtained its name.
 At the headquarters of officers of the Forty-second Division, then in Washington, D. C., there were present one morning Major General Mann, chief of the militia selective organization, and Colonel Douglas McArthur, chief of staff.
 An officer stepped up and reported that the division was ready and composed of units of militia from twenty-six states, and that when lined up it would look like a rainbow.
 Colonel McArthur, who is now General McArthur, commandant at West Point, spoke up and said: "rainbow, well that's what we will call the division," and the name became popular throughout the war, because it was the famous fighting regiment.

What is Chiropractic?
 It is the science of moving the bones of the spine BY HAND, to keep them in proper position, so they won't press on the nerves that go out between them;
 such pressure causes disease. IT APPLIES TO ALL AGES AND ALL DISEASES. It gets quick results in stomach, liver and kidney troubles, headaches, rheumatism, catarrh, bronchitis, inward troubles, appendicitis, nervous troubles, eyes, ear, nose and throat, and all parts of the body.

BE CAREFUL IN PARKING AUTOS
 Orders are out from the Mayor's office that no automobiles must be parked on the main streets behind cars already at the curb, under penalty of fine for violation of traffic ordinance.
 It is pointed out that the proper place to park cars is at the curb, and that parking cars behind those already standing at the curb not only congests traffic but prevents persons from removing their machines from the curb.

AVIATOR COMES DOWN AFTER GAS
 While flying over Fayette county early Saturday morning, Lieut. Kelley, aviator, was forced to descend about two miles outside this city on the Hunt farm on the Greenfield pike, because of lack of gasoline for the motor.
 A safe landing was made in a pasture field. The flyer was brought to this city by Mr. A. W. Minnick in order to procure the necessary high test "gas" for the plane and little time was lost before Lieut. Kelley was again on his way.
 The birdman stated that he was from the Dayton flying field and was enroute to Marietta when forced to descend. He also stated that his final destination was a flying field in West Virginia.

TWO CENT LETTER RATE EFFECTIVE ON JULY FIRST

Postal Cards Drop Back to One Cent When New Order Becomes Effective in Near Future.

The Washington post office has received orders that on and after July 1 the old two-cent letter rate and one-cent postal card rate will be in effect once more.

Two orders explaining the change to the old rate are printed below:

"Upon all matter of the first class, postage shall be charged at the rate of 2 cents for each ounce or fraction thereof; and drop letters shall be mailed at the rate of 2 cents per ounce or fraction thereof, including delivery at letter carrier offices, and 1 cent for each ounce or fraction thereof where free delivery by carrier is not established. Postal cards shall be transmitted through the mails at a postage charge of 1 cent each including the cost of manufacture.

"It shall be lawful to transmit by mail at the postage rate of 1 cent a piece, payable by stamps to be affixed by the sender and, under such regulations as the postmaster general may prescribe, written messages on private mailing cards, such cards to be sent openly in the mails, to be no larger than the size fixed by the convention of the Universal Postal union and to be approximately of the same form, quality and weight as the stamped postal card now in general use in the United States.

An additional order reads in part as follows:

"The letter rate of postage (2 cents for each ounce or fraction thereof) will be applicable to letters addressed for delivery in the Bahamas, Canada, Cuba, Barbadoes, British Guiana, British Honduras, Dominican Republic, Dutch West Indies, England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Leeward Islands, Mexico, Newfoundland, New Zealand, Panama, Trinidad, (including Tobago) and Windward Islands (including Grenada, St. Vincent, the Grenadines and St. Lucia). ## NEVER SUCH A REMEDY FOR PILES

It will cost any sufferer 30 cents to prove that bleeding, itching or protruding piles, no matter how chronic or how painful, can quickly be helped. Go to Blackmer & Tanquary's to-day, hand Blackmer & Tanquary 30 cents, say "I want a jar of San Cura Ointment" and if you aren't satisfied—your money back.

Yes, and more; try San Cura Ointment for old sores that people say will never heal, for fever sores, for itching skin, eczema, tetter, salt rheum, chapped hands, face or lips, for ulcers, carbuncles, boils, sore nipples and broken breasts.

It draws out poison, that's the secret of the wonderful success of San Cura Ointment; that's while it so quickly heals scalds, burns, cuts and bruises. It's best to use San Cura Soap at all times; it is a great aid in banishing pimples, blackheads and the germs of disease. 25 cents Thompson Medical Co., Titusville, Pa. Adv.

LOCAL MAN WRITES FROM COBLENZ

Coblentz, Germany.
 May 27, 1919

Dear Mother:
 Just a few lines to let you know that I have been in Coblentz, Germany, just five months today.

It hardly seems possible that Friday is Decoration Day, and will be a big day at home. Well, we will celebrate here just the same. For every soldier that died in the A. E. F. will have Old Glory planted on his grave and once more the Giant Cannon will be shot across his grave. The whole A. E. F. is planning, or will have the real Decoration Day in honor of the boys who gave their all.

And just yesterday a bunch of soldiers was up before the Commanding Officer of the A. of O. for review and when they came marching along with Old Glory proudly waving over Germany, the German people all crowded to see. There was just one ex-German soldier thought it wasn't necessary for him to take off his hat when the colors went by, but just as the flag got past him, right out of the ranks jumped one of those Dough-boys. The Commanding Officer laughed. Ten minutes later the German was being tenderly cared for in the hospital and saying: "America is good." When they don't stand at attention when our colors go by that means nothing less than the hospital. Well, I am sending today the Ameroc New. It has pretty good news and I think we will leave here by June 15th at the farthest if not before. Will close for this time hoping this finds you all well. With love to all.

From your son,
 PERRY STOLZENBERG.

SUNLIGHT SWITCH TRACK IS LAID

The work of laying the switch track for the Sunlight Creameries was virtually completed Saturday, and the work of ballasting the track and bringing it up to proper grade will be pushed without delay, part of the ballast material already being on the ground so that a couple of days' additional effort should see the switch proper completed. A spur or second switch track along side the new building to be erected also is to be constructed.

The track will be nearly level with the floor of the sales barn. Some radical changes in the interior of the barn are being made.

ATTENTION RED MEN
 Our memorial Services will be held June 15th all members are requested to bring flowers to our hall at 8 a. m. and at 10 a. m. march in a body to the cemetery and decorate the graves of our deceased brothers.
